

“I did not come with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring to you the testimony of God. For I determined not to know anything among you except Jesus Christ and Him crucified” (1 Corinthians 2:1-2).

We Want You to Know...

Jesus Christ/Yeshua HaMashiach is Almighty God, the Creator of all things, and we have met Him.

There is none greater than He.

There is no other savior. He is the Sole Savior of the world.

He is the Messiah for both Jews and Gentiles.

He lives today, here and now.

Only He came back from the dead; only His grave is empty by His own power.

By His death, burial, and resurrection, He has demonstrated to the world that nothing is impossible to Him, because He is God.

In the fullness of times, every knee will bow and every tongue will confess that He is Lord, not by force, but by desire, in joy and gladness.

Everyone needs Him; there isn't a soul that can do without Him.

There is no person who can save themselves.

No matter who you are or what you have done, you are in no way an impossibility for Jesus Christ at any time.

There is no problem or sin so terrible that He can't or won't overcome it for you. He already has the victory ready for you.

There is no need for you to despair if you turn to Him.

He is not here to be “accepted.” He is Lord. The question is whether or not He will accept you.

And He will, when He is ready to do so. To that end, He died and rose again.

With His blood, which was shed for all nearly 2,000 years ago - indeed, before the foundation of the world - He purchased every soul that ever was, is, or will be.

If you know your time has come to receive Him, then you had better do it.

If you don't, every moment's delay will only make it more complicated and difficult for you down the road. Still, He determines all things.

You have no right to live your life independently of Him and His will.

You are His, believe it or not (and you will), like it or not (and you will); you will know it.

No other man laid down his life for the world, no man rightly possesses any man; no man owes his life to any other man. Jesus Christ alone possesses all men. He is our Creator and Keeper.

Many religious founders have come and gone. Many live today until they serve their time as mortals and pass away. But only One is Lord and Savior, and He is no founder of a religion. He is Almighty God, Who overcame death.

Men have founded religions in His Name. He has nothing to do with them.

Jesus Christ lives today. No Muslim can say Muhammad speaks to him. No Buddhist can say Buddha speaks to him. No man can say that he can have an ongoing relationship with his religion's founder or with any person who has died. That claim can only be made of Jesus Christ, Who lives and speaks.

Only Jesus Christ can give life, having power over death.

Only Jesus Christ can deliver from Hell, having power over darkness.

Only Jesus Christ has power and authority over the Devil and demons.

Only Jesus Christ can give these powers to anyone He chooses. He gives them, as He sees fit, to His disciples.

Only Jesus Christ holds the destiny of all men in His hands and does as He pleases.

We know Him as our Father, our Elder Brother, and our Lord and Savior.

Muhammad was a very evil man who stole, raped, molested, killed, and destroyed. See all his zealous followers and what they do; there is bloodshed everywhere his faithful followers have been given freedom to fulfill his commands in the Koran.

They are so contradictory that they are incensed at these words; they threaten to kill and make their threats good when possible, but they only prove what we say, and their words are confirmed in the Koran and the Hadith, their holy books, as well as by their leaders. There is nothing peaceful about Islam.

But Jesus said, "The thief does not come except to steal and to kill and to destroy. I have come so that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly" (John 10:10 MKJV).

We are not members of, or affiliated with, any religious organization. We are His and His alone, members of His Body and citizens of His Kingdom, which is not of this world.

But His Kingdom reigns over the world even now and will restore and rule over all things by Him.

Many go to church, pray, preach, praise Him, read their Bibles, and claim His Name. Many prophesy and do great works in the sight of men in His Name, and they don't know Him; few do. They are not His; few are.

Many think they serve Him well, being sincerely persuaded that their works and words are acceptable, even pleasing to Him, but they are not - far from it. They are perishing.

The reason people are perishing is because they truly do not believe, no matter what they say. The cause of their problems is their unbelief and disobedience.

Their disobedience is a result of ignorance. If they truly knew that they were slitting their own throats in their thoughts, words, and ways, they would not think, speak, and act as they do.

Men everywhere are destroying themselves and others, but only because they reject Him.

We are all guilty of His execution. We all crucified Him with our sins.

He is not pleased with the religious, no, not at all. He hurts for them, and He is angry with them because they refuse to put their trust in Him and they prevent others from knowing Him; He pities and He is angry.

In this day, He is finished winking; He is done with men doing their own thing and thumbing their noses at Him. It is finished.

Now He takes steps to save and to destroy. Such as are for salvation, He is saving; such as are for destruction, He is destroying.

It must be understood, however, that in the end He will have saved all, every last one.

First the destruction, then the salvation - that all men might know right from wrong, good from evil, truth from error, light from darkness, and grace from self-worthiness.

We will all know lawfulness from lawlessness, success from failure, and victory from defeat.

We will all know hope from despair, joy from sorrow, and rest from labor.

We will all know God in His glory, not because we have attained, but because He attained for us, showing us that He is God.

God came as a man, born as a Jew in the nation of Israel, the descendants of Abraham through Isaac his son, by a miraculous birth through Sarah, Abraham's wife.

He came to show and make the way for us to Him, which way He is. We were hopelessly condemned without His intervention.

He has revealed Himself and has granted us that abundant life. We know we are His sheep because He has told us so and changed our lives.

He says He will in no way refuse all those who come to Him. Everyone can know the true inner peace and assurance awaiting them both in this world and in the world to come. He gives us a down payment of His life here and now. How good is that?

No religion can offer full assurance and true peace; no other man can offer favor with God. At best, men can only hope for the best, which is not good enough. If anyone promises that which they cannot deliver, they are charlatans; they are liars devising to get what they can from you. Don't believe them. Only Jesus Christ can legitimately offer full assurance of true peace and favor with God.

We know what we are talking about, because He has shed His Light, which Light He is, in our souls; He has renewed our souls. We are alive in Him, raised from the dead with Him, because we have been crucified and buried with Him.

We speak from Heaven. Those who have ears to hear, let them hear what we are saying to them by His Spirit.

Jesus Christ comes to save from sin, darkness, hell, Satan, death, this world, and from ourselves, who are set on sure destruction.

Blessed are those who hear these things and believe. The Kingdom of God is theirs for the asking. Indeed, it is already theirs before they ask.

He has sent us to speak these things to the whole world.

So the Lord Jesus Christ does His work, for which we are very thankful.
