- Instead of choosing light, you prefer to continue in darkness,
- Instead of having the Holy Spirit, you have the spirit of the world,

- Instead of seeking to know the truth in the Word, you interpret the Word with human intelligence without having the revelations given by the Holy Spirit,

- Instead of living a godly life, you choose ungodliness,
- Instead of desiring salvation, you are content to be condemned,
- Instead of walking on the right path, you stand on a path that is not good,
- Instead of seeing yourselves as sinners, you think you are righteous and believe you are righteous in the eyes of God,

- Instead of walking according to the Word, you base your life on your choices, your desires, the inspirations coming from satan, etc,
- Instead of walking by the Spirit, you walk by the flesh,

- Instead of accepting help from others, you reject them, slander them and offend them,

- Instead of walking in truth, you walk in error,
- Instead of having love for others, you have hate,

- Instead of following the example of Jesus Christ, you follow the perversion and corruption of the world under the influence of Satan,
- Instead of coming together to improve yourselves, you become more evil,
- Instead of caring for the lost sheep, you persecute your neighbor,
- Instead of living every moment for God, you waste the only life God has given you,
- Instead of desiring to be a good influence to others, you are unfaithful believers and very bad examples,
- Instead of separating yourselves from bad company, you gather with them,
- Instead of having a good conscience, you prefer to live by acting like fools,
- Instead of having good conversation with others, your tongue inflamed by gehenna defiles you with bad conversations,
- Instead of having good words, you choose to have very bad ones,
- Instead of apologizing to others, you prefer to believe that you have done nothing wrong to avoid having to repent,
- Instead of removing your bad works (teachings, videos, conversations, etc.) you persist in believing that you did them in the name of Jesus Christ out of love for him and that it was God who asked you to do all this, even though the Word clearly says that God tempts no one with evil,
- Instead of admitting that you have done evil, you find excuses to defend yourself and to establish your own righteousness,
- Instead of helping your neighbor, you destroy their life,

- Instead of walking in love, you oppose the commandments of God,
- Instead of desiring to receive only the glory of God, you love more to receive the glory of men,
- Instead of believing in Christ with a foundation on the rock, you believe a false Christ and are counterfeit believers,
- Instead of living according to God's will, you live according to your own will, your desires, your passions, your ambitions, your choices, your thoughts, etc,
- Instead of being humble people, you are proud, you think you are superior and better than others,
- Instead of asking God to teach you common sense and intelligence, you prefer to persist in the inspirations coming from the devil,
- Instead of entering through the narrow gate, you entered through the wide gate and followed the wide path that leads to perdition,

This is what sums up The path of truth and all those who put their trust in man and everything in the world!

I ask you to stop sinning against the Lord and your fellow man! Repent now!

I will teach you the right and proper way to go, for this is the work the Lord has asked me to do in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen!
