

Why do you condemn me?

I use the pronouns: me, my, my and I to simplify my message, but I speak for all the people condemned, slandered, persecuted and defamed by all the messages published on the TPOT website.

Am I wrong in saying that it is God alone who will execute the judgment according to the good and evil that each person has committed?

It is written: For God will judge every work, even those done in secret, good and bad.

It is written: Do not judge, and you will not be judged; do not condemn, and you will not be condemned; absolve, and you will be absolved.

It is written: The good man shall obtain favor of the Lord, but the Lord condemns him that is full of wickedness.

Can you confirm for what reason you condemn me and who deserves to be slandered on the web?

What is it about my life or my personality that gives you the right to tell the world that I am a very bad person by publishing on your site the conversations I have had with you?

Are you insulting me because I walk in the righteousness of God? I who want to live godly in Jesus Christ will be persecuted! For what reasons do you have bad words for me? For what purpose do you act like this?

It is written: Because a sentence against evil deeds is not executed promptly, the heart of the sons of men is filled in them with the desire to do evil.

It is written: For where there is bitter zeal and a spirit of contention, there is disorder and all kinds of evil deeds.

Why do you want the whole world to know about our conversations if you condemn yourself by your false allegations against me?

It is written: It is not I, but your mouth that condemns you. It is your lips that testify against you.

What does it matter in your life if I have consulted fortune tellers in the past, confessed my sin of divination to the Lord and know that I am already forgiven?

The Lord asks us to denounce the bad conduct of people, which is against the will of God, but we must first witness the sin at the time it is committed to warn the person not to sin and not condemn them after they have repented and turned away from their sin.

So why do you want to highlight the sins that I have mentioned to you through my testimony in my messages if God has forgiven me everything since I have already confessed all my sins to Him? Does the whole world really need to know about it, if God doesn't remember it anymore?

My testimony proves that I have not sinned against you, but against God, yet you publish our conversations on the web out of pure revenge so much your evil heart is filled with hatred towards me, for I have denounced your sins, your evil works and I have brought to light the darkness that covers your lives.

It is written: And have no part in the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather condemn them.

I have not found in the commandments of God, nor in the teachings of the apostles, a verse that says that we should write letters to speak ill of others and send them to all the towns and villages to let everyone know. Can you explain to me why you can use the web to do this today if the Lord never commanded to do this? You are committing a grave sin, I hope you will admit your mistakes.

If you commit evil and the offended person says to you: "It is not correct what you said to me or what you did" and you answer: "No, I did not do anything wrong", you are walking with the devil, he manipulates you with his lies, making you believe that you are perfect and without sin. Unfortunately, the Lord is not in your life, because God does not approach sinners who say they walk in righteousness, when it is not true.

Read this verse carefully, for the Lord is denouncing exactly what you are doing to others:

It is written, How can you think that you will avoid the punishment of hell? For I will send you prophets and wise men and scripture scholars, and you will persecute them from city to city... Yes, indeed, I assure you: the punishment deserved by all these murders will fall on the men of this generation.

Did you read correctly, the Lord sent you several people who had at heart to save your soul from darkness and you persecuted them all, even me in my city at the other end of Canada. I am persecuted because the Lord sent me to you to help you, and since you refuse to believe in the truth, the verse mentions what your condemnation will be, the punishment of hell will fall on you!

It is written: But destruction will come upon all rebels and sinners, and those who forsake the Lord will perish.

The Lord asks us, it is written: You shall not spread false rumors. So I ask you, on what basis do you say that I am a witch, a liar, a hypocrite, an innocent, a stupid, a selfish, a rebel, etc.? You are so impertinent that you dare to tell me that you have not said anything bad against me, nor any lies about me, therefore you have not sinned, but I tell you that you are feigning your innocence, unfortunately you have established your own righteousness and you are not living according to the holy justice of God. The devil has been manipulating you for years and you believe his lies.

It is written: A fool always thinks he is doing right, but a wise man listens to the advice of others.

It is written: The false witness will not go unpunished, and he who tells lies will not escape.

It is written: He who speaks the truth proclaims righteousness, and the false witness deceit.

It is written: A faithful witness does not lie, but a false witness tells lies.

I think I am the only person who is slandered and outraged by you by having on the web the most details about my life, my city, my region, my country, and also my email address. I am a simple housewife without much education, I am not a pastor, nor a preacher, nor an evangelist, nor a reverend and you slander my name, whether you are from Canada, the United States or elsewhere in the world, you are all accomplices and guilty.

Have you ever looked up the definition of the words outrageous and insulting in the dictionary, because you don't seem to realize that you are committing these sins against others. Outrageous: which outrages. Offensive, hurtful, describes any word or act that can affect someone, hurt them in a sentimental or moral way. By insulting others, this sin will prevent you from entering the Kingdom of God, for the Word is very clear on this subject.

It is written: Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor vile, nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor kidnappers, will inherit the kingdom of God.

All of you who put your trust in man and in The Path of Truth website, if you do not change your ways, you will not inherit the Kingdom of God. For there is no place in the Kingdom of God for the unclean, the wicked, the evil, the unfaithful, the liars, those who go their own way calling themselves Christians, those who deny the Lord by their evil works, those who love their sinful life and do not want to change, and all the proud and hypocrites who think they are righteous and point fingers at the other sinners around them, etc. Have you understood the importance of approaching the Lord so that He can grant you eternal life? Only Christ can heal the total depravity of the human heart.

I am a woman despised by society, but I will stand up for God's justice until I die. I will do the work that the Lord asks me to do to give him glory. I have no fear, for Christ lives in me, he is my strength and my fortress. Nothing and no one can harm me. I am of God, and I have overcome them all, the worldly minded, the false prophets, the false brothers and sisters, the devil and the demons, because the Lord lives in me and he is greater than he who is in the world. Lord, I will teach your ways to those who transgress them and the sinners will return to you. Amen!

I know that I am of God, and that the whole world is under the power of the evil one. I also know that the Son of God has come, and that he has given me the understanding to know the True One; and I am in the True One, in his Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and the eternal life. Amen!

Do you know why the Lord sent me to you? I know why the Lord has placed me on your road now, because since 2019, he has been instructing me, teaching me, transforming me, purifying me for the work that he had prepared in advance for me to accomplish in time and place. I was guided to you to denounce the sins in your life. It is obvious that you needed help because you are not aware of the state of your heart, nor of your sinful life that is totally displeasing to the Lord.

What is most obvious is this: your hearts are filled with hatred, anger, bitterness, contempt, judgment, condemnation, unforgiveness and lack of love for your neighbor.

It is written: By your hardening and unrepentant heart you are storing up a treasure of wrath for the day of wrath and the manifestation of God's righteous judgment, which will render to each one according to his deeds. Reserving eternal life for those who by perseverance in doing well seek honor, glory, and immortality, but irritation and wrath for those who in the spirit of contention rebel against the truth and obey injustice. Tribulation and anguish on every soul of man who does evil. Glory, honor and peace to everyone who does good, for before God there is no distinction of persons.

How dare you speak hostile words to others without first looking at yourself to see what is hidden in your heart and analyzing your own life before you speak evil or do evil to others. If you don't see everything that is wrong in your heart and in your life, you are not able to speak against your neighbor.

It is written: Men given to evil do not understand what is right, but those who seek the Lord understand everything.

It is written: Turn away from evil, do good; for the LORD loves justice, and will not forsake his faithful ones; they are always under his care.

It is written: Do not be wise in your own eyes, fear the Lord and turn away from evil.

A Christian walking in the righteousness of God, is an honest person, who tells the truth, admits his mistakes and does not pretend, does not hide his sins, but confesses and forsakes them, since the Christian does what the Lord asks of him.

My husband knows everything, I confessed to him that I thought of leaving him to live in peace, I explained to him that for a while I was upset by lies after reading your false teaching about marriage that I had found on your website The path of truth. But the Lord is so good to me, he revealed the truth to me by his Holy Spirit, it is written in his Word, in the Holy Bible that he is against divorce, so I am filled with peace and joy, I am a submissive wife to my husband as the Lord asks me, and I will do everything to make my family happy. And I proclaim and believe in my heart that through my testimony, the Lord will touch their hearts and they will be converted and be children of God by receiving the regeneration offered as a free gift by the Lord, in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen!

Initially, I had contacted you because I thought I would receive help from true believers, true children of God to pray for me. Unfortunately, I made the mistake of putting my trust in the wrong people and now I understand that I must trust only in God to get the help I need to face the difficulties I encounter in my life. I told people around me that I had contacted people who called themselves Christians, but I soon realized that it was a cult, but I did not name names. I was very naive and I trusted too quickly, except that through this trial, I learned a lot with the help of the Holy Spirit, the Lord had planned everything for the good of all.

May the Holy Spirit touch your heart and lead you to repentance! Amen!

Bye signed Francine Boissel, daughter of God, the Lord and the Almighty. Amen!
